990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	The Foundation for Prader-Willi Research has a professionally managed grant process that selects projects based on the collaborative input of both scientists and parents. FPWR chooses projects that are both scientifically sound and highly relevant for individuals with Prader-Willi Syndrome ("PWS") and their families. FPWR's grant process is managed by a Scientific Advisory Board that has established the following objectives: -Stimulate research that will address the challenges faced by those with PWS -Support research that directly develops and evaluates new therapeutic approaches to PWS -Support innovative research that will lead to significant advances in understanding PWS -Support early studies that allow investigators to obtain the necessary data to support further investigation of PWS -Involve parents in the process of identifying relevant areas of research and selecting the most deserving research proposals To reach these objectives, FPWR targets the following groups for allocation of research grants, all with the goal of broadening the base of research done on PWS: -New investigators To help them establish careers in PWS research -Well-established, non-PWS investigators To help them bring their expertise in relevant areas of research to address the problems associated with PWS -Established PWS investigators To help them initiate new lines of PWS research
